

BULLET OF GANGSTER
NICKS POLICEMAN'S EAR

"Hudson Dusters" Open Fire on
Officers—Alleged Shooter
Captured.

Patrolman James P. Delaney of the Charles street station exhibited a little nick in the lobe of his right ear when he and Patrolman James Devine produced Joseph Russell at Police Headquarters to-day and charged him with attempted assault and violation of the Sullivan law against carrying concealed weapons.

Delaney and Devine were approaching a crowd of members of the Hudson Dusters gang at Eleventh and Bank streets at 1 o'clock this morning to investigate the complaint of a citizen that the gang had beaten him up. As the policemen drew near somebody said, "Shoot the cops."

Russell, it is charged, promptly drew a revolver and fired at the advancing policemen, the bullet passing between their heads and taking a little piece out of Delaney's ear.

Delaney went after Russell while Devine retrieved the revolver. Russell was caught three blocks away. He declared with some show of pride that he had no employment and did not remember where he had worked.

Ushering in the New Year!!

With the Important Announcement That
Beginning To-Day, Friday, We Are Launching

Our Big January White Sale

This event is planned to be, from every point of view, the biggest Bloomingdale's have ever prepared for you.

After many weeks of preparation we are ready with mountainous stocks of worthy white goods; our buyers have spent considerable time in the foremost factories abroad and at home and selected the stocks with a refined discrimination born of many years' experience.

All the every-day needs, as well as the latest novelties, are represented in a splendid manner, and everything is offered at special sale prices, which mean great economies for you. It will certainly pay you to lay in a whole season's supply.

We have assembled complete collections of:

Underwear of nainsook, muslin, cambric and crepes. French Lingerie, daintily hand embroidered. Housekeeping Linens, White Goods, Bed Clothes. Blouses in all the most advanced Spring modes. Embroideries, Laces, etc.

In Underwear the mode of the straight line has been carefully followed. Many novelties, including Crepe Nightgowns and Underbodies in colors, tango garters and a number of other effects have been assembled for your approval.

In Linens and Bedclothes the foremost productions of the Old World and the factories at home have contributed liberally to this important economic event.

We simply cannot give you a list of complete details, but here is a summary that will give you an idea of the savings:
